

WILLIAM F. DEZINNO

Principal of Dezinno Law Offices of Meriden, Connecticut, a general practice firm since 1981 with emphasis on Workers' Compensation, Personal Injury, Governmental and Business law. The firm has served as corporate counsel to various enterprises including a NASDAQ member corporation, by providing representation in statutory/regulatory matters, acquisition, real estate, contracts, inter/intra corporate dispute, and heading negotiations and litigation.

EDUCATION

JD: Albany Law School - Union University

BA: University of Connecticut

CIVIC/PROFESSIONAL

Member of Connecticut, Florida, U.S District Court for Connecticut and U.S. Supreme Court Bars

Member, CBA Board of Governors and House of Delegates (Dist 10) - 2009-Present

Member, CBA Professionalism Committee - 2010-Present

Member, CBA Lawyer Dispute Resolution Committee - 2013-Present

Member, CBA Executive Director Search Committee - 2017-2018

Member, CBA Executive Director Review Committee - 2013-2015

Member, CBA Officers Nominating Committee - 2013

Member, CBA Council of Bar Presidents - 1985-1986

Member, CBA Litigation, Workers' Compensation, Small Firm Sections

President, Meriden-Wallingford-Southington Bar Association - 1985-1986

Candidate for appointment, U.S. Attorney for Connecticut - 2013

State Representative, 84th District, Connecticut General Assembly - Member of Judiciary Committee - 1992-1993

Small Claims Commissioner, Connecticut Superior Court - 1982-1983

Justice of the Peace, State of Connecticut - 1985-1997

Member, Meriden Democratic Party Town Committee - 1980-1993

Associate, Carrozzella-Richardson-Thompson Law Firm - 1980-1981

Law Clerk for Connecticut Attorney General, Special Revenue and Liquor Control Units - 1979

Law Clerk for U.S. Magistrate F. Owen Eagan, U.S. District Court for Connecticut - 1978