

2020 The Honorable Anthony V. Demayo Pro Bono Award Nomination Form

Eligible nominees include attorneys and paralegals in the private or public sectors who are members of the CBA and not salaried employees of a legal aid or similar nonprofit organization. Awards will be considered for each nominee who best demonstrates a dedication to the provision of legal services, without expectation of payment, to indigent persons according to the following criteria:

- (1) handles matters of significant quantity, complexity, or duration;
- (2) willing to accept unpopular, unusual, or difficult matters;
- (3) consistently goes beyond the “call of duty” and inspires others to do the same;
- (4) has achieved an outcome which made either a significant difference in a client’s life or had a major positive impact beyond the individual matter;
- (5) displays extraordinary devotion to clinics, projects, or programming which serves the legal needs of the poor;
- (6) fosters pro bono work by others through mentoring, advocacy, support, or example;
- (7) otherwise demonstrates outstanding effort, commitment, sacrifice, or accomplishment.
