

Christina Storm

Christina is the Executive Director and founder of Lawyers Without Borders (LWOB) USA, UK and Kenya. She has 18 years' experience organizing and conducting justice sector work around the world. For 25 years before founding LWOB, she was trial lawyer admitted and actively practicing in Connecticut State and Federal courts in civil and criminal matters. She oversees and manages all operations, including LWOB's anti-trafficking in persons, wildlife crime and counter-terrorism programs. Christina has been consistently named as one of the 500 Leading Lawyers in America. She was the recipient of the Connecticut Bar Association Citizen of Law Award in 2014 and the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Connecticut Law Tribune for her work founding and leading LWOB.