B. STUDENT PHOTO/MEDIA RELEASE

During CBA Law Camp, representatives from the Connecticut Bar Association (CBA), the Connecticut Bar Institute (CTBI), and/or the Connecticut Judicial Branch (the “Organizations”), and program participants may take photographs, videos, voice recordings, or other recordings (the “Recordings”) of program participants, including the student, who is a minor, named above. These Recordings may be used on or in the website, social media, magazines, newsletters, or other publications or communications of these Organizations and may be used for purposes such as promotion of the event or organization, recognition, recruitment, education or training, and other purposes.

The Organizations may choose to use any of the Recordings without further notice or compensation to any program participant or their parent or legal guardian. The Organizations may also choose to print, reprint, edit, quote, publish, copy, or represent publicly, or create derivative works based on and using the Recordings or any part of the Recordings. The Organizations may use the Recordings or any part of the Recordings without providing any opportunity to program participants and/or their parent or legal guardian to inspect or approve the finished product prior to use.

If permission for use of Recordings is given, I agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Organizations above and their officers, employees, agents, successors, and assignees from and against any and all claims and liabilities resulting from this use.

Initial ONE option below:

_____ PHOTOS, VIDEOS, AND NAME: I consent to the use of photos, videos, or other recordings, of the student listed above, as described in this document. In addition, I agree that the first and last name of the student, school, and/or town may be used in connection with any use of photographs, videos, or other recordings. (This option is best if you would like your student to be featured or recognized; for example, an article might mention that a named student was part of a winning team or won an award through the program).

_____ PHOTOS AND VIDEOS, WITHOUT NAME: I consent to the use of photos, videos, or other recordings, of the student listed above, as described in this document. If any photos, videos, or other recordings of the student are used, the student will not be identified by name.

_____ NO USE OF RECORDINGS: I do not give permission for any photograph, video, or other recording where the student named above is easily identifiable to be published or made publicly available.

By signing below, I acknowledge the statements above and represent that I am a parent or legal guardian of the student named above.
