

Dr. Diana Gailes, Indian Harbor Chiropractic

Dr. Diana Gailes is passionate about providing patients with care and education to help them live healthier, pain-free lives. She began her chiropractic career in 2002 and practices in Greenwich, both at her office, Indian Harbor Chiropractic, as well as at Jenkins NeuroSpine. As a chiropractic doctor and certified ergonomist, Dr. Gailes has a unique ability to isolate behavioral and postural problems that contribute to health issues and advise how to make simple changes that lead to long-lasting improvements. Her health and wellness services are available to the greater Fairfield County; Westchester County, New York; and New York City areas.
