

CT Lawyer Magazine

Information and Deadlines

Date: August 20, 2021

CT Lawyer magazine is published six times per year by the Connecticut Bar Association for the benefit of its members. Its purpose is to contribute to lawyers' professional growth; provide information on important legislative changes, court decisions, and other issues arising in the legal profession; keep members informed of CBA activities; and help improve law office management skills.

Members can contribute to the magazine by writing articles, suggesting article topics or themes, or submitting content for the CBA News & Events section. Articles typically range 1,200 to 4,000 words and the content should be relevant to the practice of law in Connecticut and be presented in a balanced manner. Editorial guidelines can be accessed at ctbar.org/CTLawyer.

Submit an Article

To submit an article for consideration or discuss a content idea, contact Alysha Adamo at aadam@ctbar.org or (860)612-2008. See below for deadlines and issue themes.

Submit to News & Events

The News & Events section of the magazine contains the latest information about what is happening in the world of sections, committees, CBA members, and the organization at large, including (but not limited to):

- Major events, including special speakers
- Involvement in a charitable project
- In Memoriam
- Peers & Cheers (new position announcements, new leadership roles, firm address changes, award recognition, etc.)

Article Submission Deadlines

Issue	Deadline	Content Theme
Sept/Oct 21	July 1	Giving Back
Nov/Dec 21	August 1	Humor Issue
Jan/Feb 22	October 1	New Laws/Legislation
March/April 22	December 1	TBD
May/June 22	February 1	CT Legal Conference
July/Aug 22	April 1	TBD

As bar leaders, please distribute this information among your section and committee members to encourage involvement. For more information, including editorial guidelines and archive issues, visit ctbar.org/CTLawyer or contact Alysha Adamo at aadam@ctbar.org or (860)612-2008.