

Connecticut Lawyer Magazine

Article Submission Checklist

- Review the editorial guidelines (if applicable). Keep in mind the following questions prior to submission:
 - Does the content of the article directly affect the practice of law in Connecticut?
 - Will the information in the article help CBA members in their daily business activities?
 - Is the topic timely?
 - Is there broad interest among Connecticut lawyers in the topic addressed in the article?
 - Is the content of the article presented in a balanced manner rather than presenting one side of an issue?
 - Does the article contain information not already covered in another publication?
- Submit your article to editor@ctbar.org for consideration, along with the following:
 - Biography (1-2 sentences; include your firm name and location, practice area(s), and any CBA section or committee involvement, etc.)
 - Article topic (include the area(s) of practice this article covers)
 - Word count (include the count for any endnotes)
 - Article summary (1 sentence about the article)
 - Submit a high resolution headshot (300 dpi)