Make New Connections and Network with Colleagues

Breakfast/Alumni Breakfast

The day will start with breakfast and networking for attendees in the exhibitor showcase. Alumni from Quinnipiac and UConn School of Law are invited to attend an alumni breakfast, where you can reconnect with friends and meet colleagues from your alma mater. Be sure to sign up for your university's alumni breakfast while registering for the conference.

Breaks with Exhibitors

Stroll through the exhibitor showcase after breakfast and between sessions, where you can interact with various companies offering legal research, technology solutions, law practice management services, and more. And don't miss your chance to have a free professional headshot taken throughout the day.

CBA Annual Meeting and Luncheon

Take a break from seminars to attend the 2024 CBA Annual Meeting and Luncheon, where you will hear from various prestigious speakers. Join us in recognizing judges taking senior or referee status, and attend the installation of the 2024-2025 CBA officers, including CBA president, James T. (Tim) Shearin.

The President's Reception

Close out the day socializing with colleagues and discussing takeaways from conference seminars at the President's Reception, which will feature hors d'oeuvres and complimentary beer and wine.

New This Year

A Full Track of Seminars Focused on Generative AI and the Future of the Legal Profession

While it was once merely science fiction, artificial intelligence is now increasingly becoming a critical tool for a diverse range of businesses and professionals, including legal practitioners. Join our Featured National CLE Presenter Dr. Cain Elliott and technology lawyer Damien Riehl for the AI and the Future of the Legal Profession Track:

A08 LawGPT? Generative AI, ChatGPT, LLMs, and the Legal Data-driven Revolution

B07 Algorithm to Advocate: Unleashing the Potential of AI in Law with Dr. Cain Elliott

C08 Legal Interfaces of the Future with Dr. Cain Elliott

D08 Generative AI: Advanced Uses and Practical Applications

PLUS a seminar exploring ethics and AI - C02 Technology and Legal Ethics: Defining "Competence" and Adapting to AI

Meet This Year's Featured National CLE Presenter

Dr. Cain Elliott is the head legal futurist and a senior vice president at Filevine, the leading legal work platform for law firms and businesses across the United States and Canada. He previously served as the CIO at Margolis Edelstein and taught philosophy at a variety of institutions, including the University of Pennsylvania, the Polish Academy of Sciences, and the University of Warsaw. With a doctorate in philosophy focused on building, creating, and finding new ways to learn, he advances a big-picture view on the future of legal work.

The Law Unmasked Documentary Screening

Attendees will be the first to have the opportunity to see the new documentary film created by the Connecticut Bar Association, which is comprised of interviews with numerous CBA members and Connecticut judges recounting their experiences and the challenges faced by the state legal system during the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic. The film will be screened throughout the day during the conference.
