

Welcome to the CBA's New Headquarters

On Monday, October 21 the Connecticut Bar Association celebrated the recent relocation of its headquarters from New Britain to 538 Preston Avenue, 3rd Floor, Meriden, CT 06450 with an open house for members. From 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., CBA members were invited to tour the CBA's new office, meet association leaders and staff, enjoy snacks, get a free professional head shot taken, and socialize with other members. The event was also attended by several local dignitaries, including Connecticut State Representatives Hilda Santiago and Michael Quinn as well as Meriden Mayor Kevin Scarpato. Representatives Santiago and Quinn presented the association with an official proclamation from the Connecticut State Legislature congratulating the CBA on its successful move.

The CBA's new offices include state-of-the-art conference rooms for hosting in-person CLE seminars and section meetings. Be on the lookout for upcoming in-person meetings and events in the near future. We look forward to seeing you here! 📍

A selection of treats were available for guests

The reception area had CBA swag available for attendees

(L to R) Meriden Mayor Kevin Scarpatti and CBA President-Elect Emily A. Gianquinto

The new CBA reception area has a dedicated lounge space for members

CBA members had a chance to mingle with each other while viewing the new headquarters

The CBA's new headquarters is home to state-of-the-art conference rooms available for CLE and section meetings

(L to R) Connecticut State Representatives Michael Quinn and Hilda Santiago