Attorney Joseph J. Del Ciampo
Secretary to the Rules Committee
100 Washington Street
Hartford, CT 06106

Dear Attorney Del Ciampo:

At a Special Meeting held October 26, 2018, the Connecticut Bar Examining Committee (CBEC) discussed item 2-9 on the October 15, 2018 Rules Committee meeting agenda. Article III-3 of the CBEC Regulations was amended to increase the amount of the fee credit a withdrawing applicant receives towards a future examination and to permit the Chair to use her discretion to grant a credit of up to 100% of the application fee paid by the applicant in extraordinary circumstances.

The specific amendments that were adopted are included with this letter. Also included with this letter are the results of research my office performed into the history of the regulation granting a credit, information from other jurisdictions as to whether a fee waiver is permitted, whether a credit or refund is available to withdrawing applicants, and the applicable rules from those jurisdictions.

Justice McLachlan and I will appear at the November 19, 2018 Rules Committee meeting to answer any questions the Rules Committee may have.

Sincerely,

Jessica F. Kallipolites
Administrative Director

ARTICLE II

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION AND ADMISSION BY TRANSFER OF A UNIFORM BAR EXAMINATION SCORE

Art. III-3. An applicant who withdraws his or her application to take the bar examination at least 30 days prior to the examination shall be entitled to a fee credit of ~~$125~~ seventy-five percent of the application fee paid by the applicant. Withdrawals for medical reasons accompanied by a doctor's certificate shall be entitled to a fee credit of ~~$125~~ seventy-five percent of the application fee paid by the applicant if received within ten days after the examination. In extraordinary circumstances, the Chair, or the Chair's designee, shall have the discretion to grant a credit of up to one hundred percent. In order to demonstrate extraordinary circumstances, the applicant must present evidence of exigent circumstances, such as serious illness or death in the family. All such requests related to exigent circumstances for a fee credit must be in writing and accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation, and must be received by the administrative director within thirty days after the examination. Any fee credits to which a withdrawing applicant may be entitled must be applied toward either of the next two succeeding examinations. All withdrawals must be in writing, addressed to the administrative director and are effective on the date received by the administrative director. This regulation shall be effective upon adoption and shall apply for all applicants beginning with the July 2018 examination.

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Alabama	No	Yes	An applicant may pay a withdrawal fee of $100 to carry forward their full application fee to the next exam only. If the applicant who properly withdraws and carries forward a fee does not re-apply and sit for the next exam, he or she forfeits the application fee.	Not technically, but could be
Alaska	No	Yes	If an applicant fails to meet the requirements of Rule 2 (eligibility), or to take a bar examination, no refund shall be made unless the application shall be withdrawn within 10 days following notice of its receipt by the Board in which event the application fee, less a reasonable cancellation fee, shall be refunded.
Arizona		Yes	Can receive a partial refund if application withdrawn on or before the application filing deadline date.
Arkansas	No		Can transfer fee to next exam for medical emergency
California	No	Yes	A refund of 60% or 30% of filing fees is available depending on the type of application and when withdrawn. A refund of 95% of fees is available in some emergency situations.
Colorado	No	Yes	If an application is formally withdrawn at least one business day prior to the exam and the full application fee was paid within the last 12 months, the reapplication fee is $400 (effectively a $310 fee credit). A fee can be rolled to the next exam due to a medical emergency.	Yes
Connecticut	No	Yes	An application withdrawn at least 30 days prior to the exam is entitled to a fee credit of $125 towards either of the next two exams. Withdrawals for medical reasons are entitled to the same $125 fee credit and can be received within 10 days after the exam.	Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Delaware	No	See notes	If an applicant withdraws and they can show good cause for their withdrawal they may petition the Board to apply their full fee to the next exam, but that is rare. The Board has permitted the fee to rollover for an applicant whose parent passed away shortly before the exam and for an applicant who lost their id and was therefore unable to sit for the exam. Our office is mostly funded by application fees.	Mostly
District of Columbia			Maybe would allow a partial refund for a medical emergency
Florida		Yes	Applicants can file a Notice of Postponement prior to the exam. The previously paid application fee will be applied to the next bar exam for which they apply, minus a postponement fee of $100 if notice received at least 7 days before the exam, or $200 if notice received prior to but less than 7 days before exam. If no notice is received, the full re-examination fee ($450) is required to sit for a future exam.
Georgia	No	Yes	Our Rules allow for a 50% refund of application fee if an applicant withdraws no less than 14 days prior to the exam. No fee credits for future exams. The Rules prohibit waiving fees, but we did suspend application fee to "lawyers directly impacted" by Katrina who sought to apply for the February or July 2006 bar examination.
Hawaii	No	No		Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Idaho	No - see notes	Yes	We do not grant fee waivers. We are an integrated bar in ID, and our Admissions Department is part of the ID State Bar. The ISB gets its authority from the ID Supreme Court rules. The rules set forth our application fees. If someone wanted a fee waiver, they would have to petition the ID Supreme Court. Rules permit applicants to request a one-time deferral to a future bar exam by paying a $100 deferral fee. In that case, they do not have to pay any additional fees to sit for the next bar exam.	Yes, plus lawyer registration fees
Illinois	No	No	Note: from time to time, the Board has waived a re-exam fee in an unusual case and will roll a fee in dire circumstances (i.e. medical emergency, death of spouse or parent)	Yes
Indiana	No
Iowa	No	No		Yes
Kansas	No	No	Applicants have asked about hardship fee waivers, but so far none have filed a motion to request. Would likely be denied based on how the Board has handled similar issues. No fee waivers or credits unless an applicant cannot sit for exam due to active military service.
Kentucky	No	Yes	We will transfer over their exam fee if they withdraw before our deadline. We transfer over the full exam fee, but that is only a portion of the overall fee.	Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Louisiana	No	Yes	Waiver or reduction of fees would need to come from Supreme Court. All fees are non-refundable and non-transferable except: 1) A member of the military who is called to service after submitting fees may request a refund. 2) Any person who has paid fees in anticipation of applying for admission but does not have a completed application for admission on file by the deadline is entitled to a return of any fees paid, less the Incomplete Application Administrative Fee. 3) For good cause shown, bar exam application fees can be transferred once to a subsequent exam if the applicant requests the transfer in writing at least 5 business days before the first day of the exam. The Committee may request the applicant provide documentation to aid in its consideration of good cause. The applicant may petition the Court for review if the request is denied.
Maine	No	Yes	Full fee credit is given for a future exam if an application is withdrawn or the applicant does not show up to the exam, but the applicant does have to pay a $100 admin fee to re-apply.	Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
			Does not have policy or rule to reduce or waive application fee. There is a court of appeals case, Kimmer , which holds that no applicant is entitled to take any particular Bar exam or to be admitted at a particular time. MD construes that to mean the applicant can sit for the next exam and save up for the funds needed to apply. There is a good cause rule related to late filings, and they will sometimes waive the late filing fee.
Maryland	No	Yes	For applicants who withdraw with notice in advance of the exam, we liberally defer the entire fee to the next exam. For applicants who are absent from the exam without notice and then retroactively ask for deferral, we require documentation of the particular circumstances that caused the absence (medical record, police accident report, etc.)	No
Massachusetts	Yes	No	Bar applications are filed with the Supreme Court and docketed as civil filings. Applicants can file an affidavit of indigence to request waiver of court fees, just as they would in any civil case filing with the court. Waivers are regularly granted by the Court.	No
Michigan	No	Yes	Michigan has waiver process of rule requirements EXCEPT fees (BLE Rule 7). For withdrawn applications, we charge a $100 transfer fee for those who have registered and don't sit, as opposed to a $300 re-exam fee (for failing applicants).	Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Minnesota	No	Yes	If an applicant withdraws 15 or more days before the exam, the applicant receives a refund of $150 (from the $500 timely application fee for individuals who have not been admitted in another jurisdiction for more than 6 months) or $300 (from the $950 timely application fee for lawyers admitted for more than 6 months). The applicant also receives a refund of the $100 examsoft fee. There is no refund of the $150 late filing fee. Applicants who have a medical emergency may carry over to the next exam by payment of a $50 fee.	Yes, plus lawyer registration fees
Mississippi	No	Yes	Upon written request an applicant can defer their application to the next exam without paying any additional fees. Additional deferments require the payment of a $325 fee. If an applicant fails to show at the exam without a prior written request for deferment, the applicant would have to pay the full fee for a subsequent exam.
			Would defer fees to next exam for a medical emergency
Missouri	No	No	In limited situations we may allow a credit toward a different type of application. For example, if the applicant has filed an application to take the bar exam and shortly thereafter they seek admission by motion (and meet eligibility), we may credit their bar application fee toward the motion application fee (assuming we have not expended funds for testing materials).	Yes
Montana	No	No		Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Nebraska	See notes	Yes	No specific fee waiver rule, but do have a catch all provision that says, "The Court, upon application, may in its discretion vary the application or waive any provision of these rules where strict compliance will cause undue hardship to the applicant. Such application shall be in the form of a verified petition setting forth the applicant's qualifications, character and fitness, and the facts relied upon and a request for waiver of a specific qualification."
Nevada		No	If an application is withdrawn at least 30 days before the exam, fees can be held over to the next exam upon written request. If an application is withdrawn less than 30 days before the exam, only the portion of the fee charged for the MPT, MEE, and MBE may be refunded.
New Hampshire	No	Yes	If an application is withdrawn at least 30 days before the exam, the applicant can pay an administrative fee and not have to file a new application or fee for the next exam.	Yes
New Jersey	Yes	No	Does occasionally get requests from applicants claiming hardship or indigence. Asks for financial documentation and then follows federal income guidelines.
			Would consider a motion to carry over the exam fees to the next exam with proof of medical emergency.
New Mexico	No	Yes	Full fee credit is granted once for a withdrawal. If the person withdraws a second time, the fee is lost. If the fee increases between the initial application and the new application they must pay the difference.	Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
New York	No	Yes	Fees are set by statute and cannot be waived. For withdrawals, the Board has discretion to offer a credit or refund under limited circumstances. Applicants must demonstrate hardship or exigent circumstances such as illness or death in the family to obtain a refund or credit of the fee. We typically grant a credit rather than a refund unless the applicant has no intention of re-applying in the future.	No
North Carolina	No	Yes	The Executive Director may, for good cause, transfer the application fee from one exam to the next succeeding exam.	Yes
North Dakota	No	Yes	We allow a fee transfer in the very limited circumstance of an applicant who withdraws before we have ordered our exam materials. A one-time only fee transfer is allowed to carry over to the next exam administration subsequent to withdrawal.	Yes
Ohio	No	No	Application fees are nonrefundable pursuant to Gov. Bar R. I, and refunds/waivers of fees are historically granted only under special circumstances and can only be approved by the Court.	Yes
Oklahoma	No		Board may consider on case by case basis.
Oregon		Yes	An applicant may withdraw their application in writing on or before the Tuesday before the first day of the exam and receive a refund of a portion of the $750 fee (total refund $375). If an application is withdrawn later than the Tuesday before the first day of the exam, or an applicant fails to appear for the exam, or fails to complete the exam, no fee will be refunded regardless of cause. No applications or fees may be transferred from one exam to another.
Pennsylvania	No	No

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Rhode Island	Yes	Yes	Applicants may file a waiver of the filing fee pursuant to RI Supreme Court Article II, Rule 6, "Upon petition, for good cause shown, the board, in its discretion, may waive compliance with any of the foregoing rules if it finds that such waiver will not be detrimental to the public interest."	No
South Carolina	No	No	Applicants can defer their application to the next exam for a fee of $300 at any time prior to one week before the exam. If an applicant fails to appear at the exam and did not defer or withdraw their application prior to one week before the exam will be counted as a failed exam.	Not technically, but could be
South Dakota	No
Tennessee	No	Yes	The TN rule allows a refund ($150) to applicants who withdraw up to a month before the exam. For applicants with a verified medical emergency after that time, the Board gives the same refund.
Texas	Yes	No	Rule 18(c) (fees) - "any fee required under these Rules may be waived or lowered by the Board upon written request and proof of indigence." Rule 18(b) "No refund or transfer of fees will be made in the event of the withdrawal of any Declaration or Application . . . "	Yes

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Utah	No	Yes	In UT, applicants must receive character and fitness approval prior to taking the exam. They differentiate between withdrawing an application and deferring to a future exam. They refund 50% of application fee if withdrawn 30 days or more before the exam, but no portion of late fees or laptop fees are refunded. If the person reapplies, the full application fee must be paid. Applicants can also defer their application to a later exam for a $100 transfer fee. Deferrals are allowed for 1) a substantiated death in the family or medical emergency, or 2) character and fitness reasons, or 3) non-standard testing accommodation related reasons.	Yes, plus lawyer registration fees
Vermont	No	Yes	No fee waivers, but rules do permit refunds based on a showing of extraordinary circumstances. For withdrawals we allow a full fee credit, minus a $50 nonrefundable portion, towards a future exam.	Yes
Virginia	No	Yes	The Board does receive fee waiver requests from time to time, but so far no requests have been granted. The Board's Rules permit an applicant who applies but does not take the exam to "carry forward" his or her application to the next exam (or within one year) for a reduced fee if requested in a timely manner (see rule for language). The current original application fee is $475 and the fee for those eligible to carry forward is $175 ($300 less).	Yes
Washington	No	Yes	A partial refund of the application fee is given if they withdraw by a specific deadline.	Yes
West Virginia	No	Yes	Full fee credit only for the next bar exam if the applicant withdraws more than 60 days prior to the exam.	No

STATE	Do you grant hardship waivers ?	Do you grant a fee credit/refund if app withdrawn?	Comments/Links	Self-funded?
Wisconsin	No	Yes	Partial refund if withdrawn by certain deadline
Wyoming	No	No	Fee is paid to the WY Supreme Court and the Board cannot waive a filing fee. May allow a fee to be rolled to the next exam for a medical emergency.	No
Guam	No		Has discussed.
