2. The Committee considered a proposed new rule and form to include Medicare questions in standard discovery.

After discussion, the Committee tabled the matter to receive comments by January 7, 2019, from Hon. James W. Abrams, Chief Administrative Judge, Civil Matters, the Connecticut Bar Association, the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association, and the Connecticut Defense Lawyers Association, and to receive further comments from Judges Bellis and Stevens after conferring with Judge William H. Bright, Jr.

3. The Committee considered a proposal by the Connecticut Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML) to amend Section 25-5 (b) regarding the purchase or sale of securities in light of O'Brien v. O'Brien, 326 Conn. 81, 161 A.3d 1236 (2017).

After discussion, the Committee voted as follows:

The Rules Committee, after reviewing the report of the Legal Specialization Screening Committee dated November 28, 2018, recommending approval of the application of the Connecticut Bar Association for authority to certify lawyers as specialists in the field of Residential Real Estate, unanimously approves the Connecticut Bar Association for a five year period commencing December 18, 2018, as qualified to certify lawyers as specialists in that field. This approval is subject to the condition that the CBA is required to notify promptly the Legal Specialization Screening Committee of any material changes in the information contained in its application or in its methodology for certifying lawyers as such specialists during the term of this approval.

The Rules Committee, after reviewing the report of the Legal Specialization Screening Committee, dated November 28, 2018, recommending approval of the application of the National Board of Trial Advocacy for renewal of its authority to certify lawyers as specialists in the field of Criminal Law and in the field of Civil Trial Practice, unanimously approves the National Board of Trial Advocacy for a five year period commencing on February 22, 2019, as qualified to certify lawyers as specialists in those fields. 8. The Committee considered a proposal by Mr. Robert Berriault for a rule to allow for a waiver of fees for certain applicants of the bar.

Counsel reported to the Committee that the Connecticut Bar Examining Committee (CBEC) has accommodated Mr. Berriault's request and has promulgated amended regulations, allowing for up to a 100% credit of the bar exam fee, in certain extenuating circumstances. Justice McDonald reported to the Committee that CBEC will collect data regarding such credits for two years, at which time the Committee may consider additional proposals.

After discussion, the Committee took no action on the proposal and calendared the matter for a year and a half, pending the CBEC's collection and report of the aforesaid data.

9. The Committee rescheduled the January 2019 Rules Committee meeting date from Monday, January 14, 2019, to Tuesday, January 22, 2019, to accommodate the Client Security Fund meeting.

The Committee should receive the CBA's position on the report for the February 11, 2019 meeting. Comments from the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association have been requested as well.
