Subject: RE: Referral from the Superior Court Rules Committee Regarding uniform standard interrogatories and production requests for real property tax appeals

Joe,

The Board of Directors of the Connecticut Association of Municipal Attorneys met virtually today, and is very interested in the proposed change in the Rules to include standard discovery requests.

We have had discussions on this issue over the years, including with the various presiding judges involved in municipal tax appeals.

I'd like to discuss the process moving forward with you.

I left a voicemail in the general mailbox for you, but wanted to follow up with this email.

I will be working remotely the rest of the week, so the best number to reach me is 860.371.6328.

Thanks,

Kevin

Subject: Referral from the Superior Court Rules Committee Regarding uniform standard interrogatories and production requests for real property tax appeals

Good afternoon,

At its meeting on January 10, 2022, the Rules Committee of the Superior Court considered a proposal to amend the Practice Book to include uniform standard interrogatories and production requests for real property tax appeals (RC ID # 2021-027, attached). After discussion, the Committee tabled this proposal and referred it to Judge Abrams and Judge Cordani, the Connecticut Bar Association, the Connecticut Association of Assessing Officers, Connecticut Association of Municipal Attorneys, and for review of the proposal and to submit comments.

The next meeting of the Rules Committee is February 7, 2022. The last meeting of the Committee for new business is March 14, 2022.

Thank you.
