Dear Attorney DelCiampo,

At its April 17, 2019 meeting, the Standing Committee on Professional Ethics considered the proposal submitted by the Statewide Bar Counsel and the Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office to amend Practice Book §§ 2-35, 2-36, 2-39, 2-42, and 2-53 (the same proposal that was agenda item 03-07 at the Rules Committee's November 19, 2018 meeting).

The Ethics Committee voted without dissent that it has no objection to the proposed changes to Practice Book §§ 2-35, 2-36, 2-39, 2-42, and 2-53.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any further questions.

Marcy Stovall
Legislative Liaison, Standing Committee on Professional Ethics

Subject: Referral from the Rules Committee of the Superior Court

Good Morning,

At its meeting on November 19, 2018, the Rules Committee considered the attached joint proposal submitted by the Statewide Bar Counsel on behalf of the Statewide Grievance Committee and the Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office.

After discussion, the Rules Committee referred the matter for review and comments to the Connecticut Bar Association (Standing Committee on Professional Ethics and Committee on Disciplinary Process), the Connecticut Trials Lawyers Association, the Connecticut Defense Lawyers Association, and to all Superior Court Administrative Judges. To date, I have no record of having received comments on the proposal from your respective organizations.

The next meeting of the Rules Committee at which this proposal may be considered is February 10, 2020. Any comments you have regarding the proposal would be appreciated before that meeting.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you.
