Dear Attorney Del Ciampo,

I'm writing in my capacity as the Chief Administrative Judge of the Family Division to advise the Rules Committee that I have no objection to, or further comment upon, the proposal submitted jointly by the Statewide Bar Counsel and Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office which you referenced in your email to me of January 23, 2020.

I thank you and the Rules Committee for the opportunity to comment.

Subject: Referral from the Rules Committee Regarding Proposal to Amend Chapter 2 of the Practice Book

Good Morning,

At its meeting on November 19, 2018, the Rules Committee considered the attached proposal submitted jointly by the Statewide Bar Counsel on behalf of the Statewide Grievance Committee and the Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office.

After discussion, the Rules Committee referred the matter for review and comments to all Superior Court Administrative Judges, the Connecticut Bar Association (Standing Committee on Professional Ethics and Committee on Disciplinary Process), the Connecticut Trials Lawyers Association, and to the Connecticut Defense Lawyers Association. To date, I have no record of having received any comments on the proposal.

The next meeting of the Rules Committee at which this proposal may be considered is February 10, 2020. Any comments you have regarding the proposal would be appreciated before that meeting.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you.
